

The Home of Greeting Cards...

need more than just a printer?

Over the years we have developed a deeper customer understanding, recognising your needs and requirements for more than just a greeting card printer.

That's why, we pride ourselves on being an industry partner, working collaboratively across the industry enabling us to offer you continuous development and the latest innovation in greeting card production, materials, and finishes.

But most importantly working together in partnership with our customers to share our expertise and produce award winning greeting cards.

Loxleys offer us great service and always rise to a challenge when we want to achieve something new, critical to the success of our business. We have a great working-development partnership

We approached Loxleys with a desire to push the capabilities of hot foiling to new levels. As ever they were more than happy to oblige and worked closely with our designers and the die makers to make it happen!

Loxleys supported us with developing the cold foiling process alongside flat colour and then working in the embossing to maximise the final effect, which has led to high-quality print and one of our most successful recent product launches

There's no place like...
