HELLO!

I'm Siroun, a collage illustrator based in Surrey. Painting, cutting and sticking paper is how I bring my illustrations to life, as well as bold and textured colours. I love creating fun and bright images depicting dreamy utopias and silly characters.

Hello Earthling! I am an Illustrator currently based in Telford. I am inspired by all things pastel and cute but also the occult and horror. I like to blend these two elements and borrow influences of tattoo styles and anime!

Hi, I'm Lily! I'm an illustrator and designer based in the East Midlands. I use wit and satire in my creative practice to spread socially conscious messages and impact audiences. I like to push boundaries and hope to connect with clients who want to engage with my silliness and tongue in cheek tone.
